Acts 22:3-15 (KJV) | August 16, 2026

Summary

Saul was very sure of himself, but he was hurting followers of Jesus. On the road to Damascus, Jesus got his attention and changed his direction.

God sent Ananias to help Saul, restore his sight, and tell him that God had a new purpose for his life.

Jesus can do more than change how we look. He can change our heart, our direction, and what we live for.

Detailed Notes

1. Saul Had a Story Before He Changed

Saul was educated and determined, but he was going the wrong way.

2. Jesus Stopped Saul

A great light and the voice of Jesus stopped Saul on the road.

3. Saul Needed Help

Ananias came to help Saul and restore his sight.

4. God Gave Saul a New Purpose

Saul was called to become a witness and tell others about Jesus.

Life Application

- Let God's Word check your choices.
- Thank someone who helps you grow in faith.
- Be willing to admit when you are wrong.
- Tell someone one good thing Jesus has done in your life.

Memory Verse

"For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard." - Acts 22:15 (KJV)

Prayer

Dear Jesus, thank You for changing hearts and giving new purpose. Help us listen, learn, and tell others what You have done. Amen.
